

Statement of participation

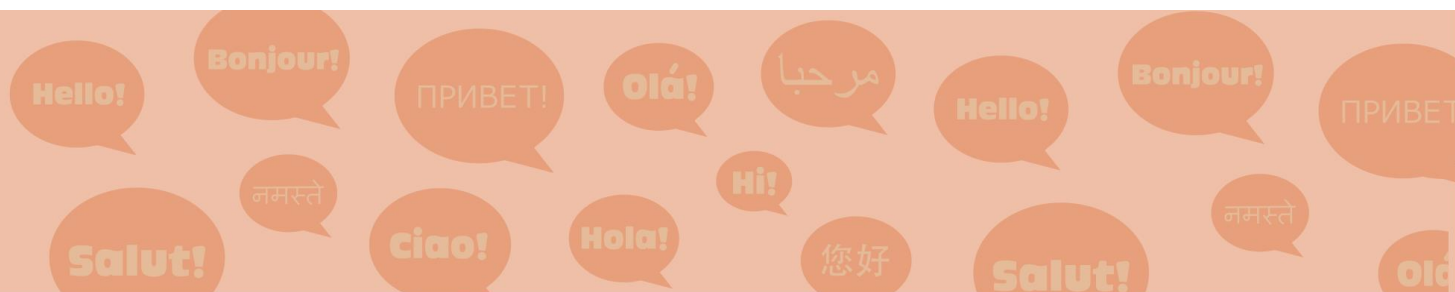

Heman Seegolam

has completed the free course including any mandatory tests for:

Getting started with German 1

This free 6-hour course introduced the basics of German pronunciation and introductions.

Issue date: 1 August 2023

www.open.edu/openlearn

This statement does not imply the award of credit points nor the conferment of a University Qualification.
This statement confirms that this free course and all mandatory tests were passed by the learner.

Please go to the course on OpenLearn for full details:

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/languages/getting-started-german-1/content-section-overview>

COURSE CODE: LXG001_1

Getting started with German 1

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/languages/getting-started-german-1/content-section-overview>

Course summary

In this 2-week course you will go on a journey through Germany, Austria and Switzerland and introduce you to the language skills you need to start understanding and using German. You will start from the basics - simple greetings, introducing yourself and using numbers. Progressing towards being able to join conversations in German and to understand and use the language in a variety of scenarios.

Learning outcomes

By completing this course, the learner should be able to:

- say hello, goodbye and some of the first phrases to use when meeting a German speaker
- count from one to ten
- understand the basic rules of German pronunciation
- recognise different German-speaking countries and places and know how to pronounce them the German way.
- introduce oneself and say where one is from.

Completed study

The learner has completed the following:

Week 1

Introduction

Hallo!

Week 2

Places in Germany, Austria and Switzerland